$30,000

“Langley Federal Credit Union remains a strong partner in our work to feed families who are struggling with hunger. You truly are a stellar example of donor commitment. Your desire to help is widespread, whether you are conducting food and fund drives, helping to sponsor our annual Tastefully Yours event, or supporting us through grant funding...LFCU demonstrates that it is indeed FOR families, as we work together to provide nourishment to those in need. Families are fed and also receive a sense of comfort and hope because you care.” - Robyn Robertson, Chief Development Officer of the Virginia Peninsula Foodbank

“Langley Federal Credit Union and Langley for Families’ philanthropic support to CHKD this year provided new mothers custom swaddles sized specially for their premature babies, built a Pulmonary Function Test (PFT) room for our cystic fibrosis patients, supplied arts and crafts to bring out the superhero in children playing in our hospital playrooms, and comfort to families whose children are struggling with mental health diagnoses. Philanthropy like Langley’s helps ensure that children remain kids when they are hospitalized and allows CHKD to care for every child in our community, regardless of their family’s ability to pay. More than that, your employees donate their time and talents to the hospital volunteer program, events like Radiothon and advisory boards - and on behalf of our patients and their families, doctors, nurses and staff - thank you. We are proud to partner with Langley Federal Credit Union for life!” - Lauren Kiger, Director of Corporate Relations of Children’s Hospital of The King’s Daughters

Volunteerism

Langley is committed to making a difference, especially through the power of our workforce. Langley was proud to support many events throughout the community including the 94.9 The Point Radiothon benefitting CHKD, the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's Light the Night event, and the American Cancer Society's Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Event.

During the holiday season, Langley branches and offices participated in an organization-wide Langley for Families Holiday Food Drive to benefit two local foodbanks in a year where our foodbanks are struggling to keep up with demand.
